The Democracy of Illinois Open The Battle in Their State Convention at Peoria.

The Mention of Tilden, Cleveland and McDonald's Names Greeted With Enthusiastic Applause.

The President Vetoes the Fitz John Porter Bill—Congressional—Matters of Interest.

The Democracy of Illinois.

PEORIA, Ill., June 2.—The preliminary meeting of the state democratic convention will be called to order at noon. The various congressional delegates met at 9 o'clock for the purpose of choosing delegates to the national convention, presidental electors, members of the state central committee and committeemen for the work of the state convention. The result of these conventions is expected to be reported to the state convention at the opening session. The situation as to the probable candidates has not changed since last night. It is understood Gen. J. C. Black, who was mentioned in connection with the office of governor, will place the name of Mayor Harrison, of Chicago, before the convention for that place.

The platform has not yet been written, but as the result of the consultation among the leaders it is reported as practically determined to re-affirm the state platform of 1876, which was suited to Tilden. The general feeling seems to favor leaving the tariff question to the national convention. Mayor Harrison will reach here, in response to yesterday's telegrams, at 3 o'clock this afternoon. He will be escorted to the hotel by the Cook county democrats.

THE DELEGATES.

The following is a list of delegates to the national convention, the choice by district delegations at their conventions this morning: First district, J. C. Mackin and W. C. Seipp, of Cook; Second, E. F. Cullerton and J. H. Hildreth, of Cook; Third, Carter H. Harrison and Christian Cassel, of Cook; Fourth, Harry Rubens and F. H. Winston, of Cook; Fifth, J. F. Gladden, of DeKalb, and G. W. Renwick, of Kane; Sixth, F. J. Sheehan, of Jo Daviess, and F. H. Marsh, of Ogle; Seventh, O. H. McCormack, of Bureau, and Sherman Dixon, of Lee; Eighth, A. J. Conner, of Lasselle, and J. R. S. Scoville, of Grundy; Ninth, Andrew Kerr, of Kankakee, W. R. Dunn, of Woodford; Tenth, [illegible] Shape, of Fulton, and W. Givings, [illegible]nox; Eleventh, R. T. Cable, of Rock Island and John Haugate; Twelfth, Ellis Briggs, of Green, and W. L. VanClever, of Browne; Thirteenth, Major Callan, of Morgan, and Ben Prettyman, of Lazewell; Fourteenth, A. E. Stevenson, of McLean, and Charles E. Ewing, of Macon; Fifteenth, J. B. Mann, of Van Dercook, and William A. Day, of Champaign; Sixteenth, Gen. W. B. Parsons, of Clay, and J. H. Hawley, of Jasper; Seventeenth, Judge Anthony Thornton, of Shelby, and Judge Jesse J. Phillips, of Montgomery; Eighteenth, William H. Kane, of Madison, and Douglas Payne, of Bond; Nineteenth, Charles E. McDowell, of White, and William A. J. Sharks, of Clinton; Twentieth, J. Allen, of Jackson, and Judge William H. Green, of Alexander.

THE WORK OF THE CONVENTION.

The democratic state convention was called to order at 12:30 p. m. by J. H. Oberly, chairman of the state central committee. The convention was opened with prayer by Rev. J. C. Bruce, of Peoria. After the reading of the call for the convention by the secretary, Chairman Oberly spoke at considerable length eulogizing the democratic party and arraigning the republican party in severe terms. He referred to S. J. Tilden as the second Jefferson, which was received with prolonged cheers. The remark that if he had not declined the nomination would have been tendered to him at Chicago next week, was also received with cheers mingled with noes. Reference to Cleveland, McDonald and Morrison also brought out cheers mingled with cries of Tilden. When the speaker asked the question, "Shall we in spite of the declination of Mr. Tilden nominate him for president of the United States?" the convention rose and cheered vociferously.

Henry Clay Connolly, of Rock Island, was chosen temporary chairman, and Wm. J. Moultrie, temporary secretary. Major Connolly made a brief address, but was not able to make himself heard in the distant part of the hall, and feeling that he would not under any circumstances be able to the affairs of the convention resigned the gavel and Oberly assumed the chairmanship. A motion after all resolutions to the committee resolutions without debate, and a resolution for the appointment of the usual committees were adopted. General McClelland presented a resolution to the effect that it was the sense of the convention that the old ticket, Samuel J. Tilden and Thomas A. Hendricks, should be again nominated for president and vice-president of the United States by the national democratic convention to assemble at Chicago July 8. The chair decided the resolution not in order at this time, as the convention was engaged in the work of perfecting the temporary organization.

The convention proceeded to a call of the lists for the appointment of committees on resolutions, credentials, permanent organization, etc., pending the report of the committee on credentials, at 2 o'clock the convention took a recess until 4 p. m.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The senate has confirmed the following nominations: Watson C. Squire, Washington territory, governor of Washington territory; Gilbert C. Pierce, Illinois, governor of Dakota; Henry S. Neil, Ohio, solicitor of the treasury; John S. Hull, Mississippi, receiver of public money, Jackson, Miss.; Samuel A. Lorch, Pennsylvania, secretary of New Mexico; David P. B. Pride, Idaho, secretary of Idaho; Jesse W. George, Washington territory, United States marshal, Washington territory; Henry Kelly, Oregon, United States marshal, Oregon; S. J. Evans, Texas, United States attorney for western district of Texas. Postmasters: E. O. Brans, Tracy, Minn.; Henry O. Bashford, Austin, Minn.; George B. Mills, Astoria, Ill.; James B. Tyner, Brooklyn, Ind.

The senate insisted upon its amendments to the naval bill and a new conference was ordered. The senate then went into executive session.

After ten minutes in executive session the senate resumed the legislative business. Van Wyck, of the committee on public lands, reported favorably the joint resolution prohibiting the secretary of the interior from certifying or patenting any lands to railroad corporations until congress shall have acted on any bill or report from the committee favoring the forfeiture of such lands. Garland, of the committee on judiciary, reported with amendments the house bill relating to the taxation of the Pacific railroad lands. The amendments substitute for the provisions of the house bill those of the bill reported early this session by Garland from the senate committee. The sundry civil bill was then taken up. The house committee on elections decided to reconsider its action in the contested election case of Fredericks vs. Wilson, of Iowa, and the latter gentlemen will remain in his seat.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—In the house Henry, of the committee on public lands, reported the bill for the forfeiture of the lands granted to aid the construction of the railroad from Portland, Oregon, to connect with the Central Pacific railroad. Calendared.

In pursuance of an agreement yesterday, the house proceeded to vote upon the motion to substitute the minority fortification bill reported by a majority of the committee on appropriations. The motion was agreed to: yeas 150, nays 90.

Whole Townships on Fire.

KINGSTON, Ont., July 2.—Great fires prevail in several adjacent townships, numbering perhaps 100. A fire in the McGill settlement, two miles south, is still spreading. Near the Mississippi river, about a mile from the railway station, the fire is said to cover fourteen miles one way, and three miles the other. McLean's mill and stock of lumber is all surrounded by fire.

Vetoed the Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The president has vetoed the Fitz John Porter bill.

THE republican national committee are thinking of establishing headquarters at Indianapolis or Chicago. This is a New scheme.

THE president has nominated Jacob Austin, of Minnesota, receiver of public moneys at Fergus Falls, Minn., and Henry S. Neal of Ohio, solicitor of the treasury.

IT is estimated that about five thousand people were in attendance Sunday at the deaf mutes re-union at Milton, this state. Several noted preachers delivered addresses.

THE people of Chamberlain, D. T., will celebrate Independence Day in "glorious style." Among the attractions advertised is the hanging of six notorious horse thieves.

GREAT events come in quick succession this year. Next Friday is the "glorious Fourth" and on the Tuesday following the democratic hosts of the country meet to name the next president.

THE belles of St. Louis have, so the Chicago papers say, organized a boxing club. If this be true the dudes of that city may now take their eyes off the father and big brothers and look out for love taps on the nose.

THE county democracy of New York send 450 members to the Chicago convention. They start Friday next by the West Shore railroad. The Palmer house will be their headquarters. The Jeffersonian democrats, of Brooklyn, will send sixty members. They leave Saturday night. Their headquarters will be at the Leland hotel.

IT is said that William Walter Phelps will contribute $100,000 to the republican campaign fund. Evidently this is to be a money campaign, if the republicans can make it such. It must be money against principle. While "Soapy" Elkins is spending the money, the democracy will appeal to the people for principle and for justice.

NEW YORK is about to try an experiment in the treatment of the insane—on the theory that healthy occupation is good for the diseased mind. The commissioners of charities and correction have bought a farm of over 1,000 acres on Long Island, about thirty miles from New York City, and the patients will turn their attention to farming and gardening.

A YOUNG woman, Lizzie Brasley, of White Cloud, Kan., quarreled with her father and determined to starve herself to death. She did so after fifty-three days of an effort.

THE followers of the candidates for the democratic nomination for the presidency are gathering at Chicago. The McDonald men are enthusiastic, sanguine and confident of ultimate success.

THE probability of the cholera reaching this country should be sufficient to cause the enforcement of the most rigid sanitary measures in every city in the country. Too much care cannot be exercised in this matter.

GENERAL LOGAN is the first man the republicans have nominated for a vice presidency with a wife to share his honors. Dayton, nominated in 1856; Hamlin, in 1860; Johnson, in 1864; Colfax, in 1868; Wilson, in 1872; Wheeler, in 1876, and Arthur, in 1880, were all widowers.

NEXT Friday is the Fourth of July, the anniversary of the proclamation of American freedom, the great national holiday of the country. The pleasant phiz of the fire cracker and the sky rocket will be heard throughout the length and breadth of the land, and the eagle will be made to scream in his great glee. The proper observance of the day brings much news to the papers.

"IT is said that Chairman Jones, of the republican national committee, is 'as good a representative as could be found of those great protective principles upon which our national business growth and and prosperity are founded.' As Jones is a bloated Pennsylvania iron boss, who has grown rich out of tariff robbery, there is no doubt of his fitness to represent these 'great protective principles.'"—Chicago Times.

SCHUYLER COLFAX is said to be very enthusiastic for Blaine. This seems rather strange, inasmuch as it was Blaine who was the principle mover in the investigation of Mr. Colfax. The ex-vice president is, however, a lecturer and having worn threadbare the subject of "Our Martyred Presidents," may now be endeavoring to secure a slight change and start out anew with "Our Tattooed President."

"OVER $2,500,000 of $1 and $2 bills have just been issued from the bureau of printing and engraving. If well distributed this is not enough to go half around to the fellows who want them."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

If this is not a sufficient amount, Mr. Stephen B. Elkins, the 1884 Dorsey of the republican party, can, perhaps, have more issued. Mr. Elkins' chief business will be hunting the fellows who want them."

GENERAL DIAZ has been elected president of Mexico, to succeed President Gonzales. Porfirio Diaz had no opposition, and was overwhelmingly elected to the presidency of Mexico, for the second time. The elections which lately occurred correspond with the primary elections in the United States. This election was by popular suffrage. The electors will meet at the capitals of their respective states on the second Sunday in July and cast the ballot for president.

THE shrinkage of stocks in the past few weeks has caused several fortunes to go sliding down the inclined plane of adversity. It is estimated that the shrinkage upon "the Vanderbilt stocks" is about $50,000,000; "the Goulds" not less than $30,000,000, and "the Huntingtons" $15,000,000. None of these, however, are in actual need as yet and there is no necessity for sympathizing people to start a subscription list for their benefit or for congress to place them upon the retired army list.

THE republican national convention adopted their platform with a great hurrah and without serious thought. In consequence many repudiated it after a careful study. The democratic convention, we believe, will do their work and its fighting, if there is any to be done, while in session as a convention. The party wants a clear and distinct platform, one carefully considered and wants that consideration given while there is yet time to make changes if necessary.

A REPUBLICAN friend of Mr. Dana has written that gentleman, telling him that he may become the benefactor of the human race and the greatest of American journalists, if he will only "bring in the harvest of good government" by advocating the election of Mr. Blaine. Mr. Dana replied: "Sooner than join in making James G. Blaine president of the United States, we would quit work, burn up our pen, and leave to other and perhaps rasher heads the noble controversies of politics and the defense of popular self-government."

"A FRENCH physician," says the Philadelphia Times, "has discovered that the secret of the peculiar richness and depth of Italian voices is attributable to the presence of peroxide of hydrogen in large quantities in the atmosphere of Italy. He has succeeded in obtaining a chemical combination, a perfect substitute for Italian air, which he keeps in bottles and retails at a moderate price. Three cases, it is said, will transform a chorus singer into a Tamberlick, and its effect on the tunefulness of a camp meeting almost equals that of Boston baked beans on the imaginations of a philosophical gathering at Concord."

THE statement of an Indian agent that the Indians under his charge are dying from starvation strikes the people in rather a peculiar manner. If it was a white people our sympathies would be at once aroused but as it is a class who are under the protection of the government the subject is given scarcely a second thought. And yet we hold up our hands in horror when we hear of an "Indian raid," or that they have stolen the cattle of the settlers. The government it seems not being content with driving them out tries to hasten their exit from the stage of existence by starving them to death.

FROM every portion of the country comes the cry of a depression in trade. Large manufactories have closed, throwing thousands of men out of employment and many more are threatening to follow the example. The signs of the times, while not pointing to a great panic, yet gives abundant evidence of very "close times," giving the warning that prudence must be exercised in order to avert suffering and calamity. The American people, generally speaking, live too high and pay but little attention to the future, consequently all classes are affected when depression strikes any one class. This summer, which promises to be "dull" in a business point of view is certain to be followed by an era of prosperity. The country is blessed with the promise of abundant crops and the harvest is upon us, so that there is not likely to rise any fear of suffering. The condition of the workmen and of the manufacturers is due to the many failures in Wall street, which have created serious trouble and other failures throughout the country. The people would be vastly better off were these sharks driven out of the country. The pilfering system and false values which they place upon securities is hurtful to every interest of the country and their presence is a curse.

McDONALD A NATIONAL MAN.

Joseph E. McDonald is a national man and is known as such. As a statesman his experience covers a long term of years. In the senate he stood the peer of the strongest men in the nation.

Senator McDonald has been tried, and there are no doubts as to where he stands on national issues, whether tariff, finance or foreign relations.

Senator McDonald is a man of the people. "Old Saddle Bags," is not a very high-toned name, but it means, a great deal. It means that a man who rises to eminence and secures the respect of his countrymen by his own exertions is very close to the hearts of the people of this self-made nation.—Frankfort, Ind., Crescent.

The Voice of the People.

The people, as a whole, seldom make mistakes, and the unanimous voice of praise which comes from those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla fully justifies the claims of the proprietors of this great medicine. Indeed, these very claims are based entirely on what the people say Hood's Sarsaparilla has done. Send to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass., for a book containing statement of many cases.

Parnell writes to Rev. William McKenna, of Boston, that if he cannot attend the convention in August he will send Mr. Beaton.

In the Hop Plaster are united fresh hops, gums and balsams, and its power is wonderful in curing back ache, sprains, bruises, neuralgia, pain in the side or soreness anywhere. Thousands testify to this.

The receivers of the Wabash have advertised the payment of the interest on a large number of their branch lines. The Missouri Pacific is paying its interest to-day.

A Healthful Diuretic.

BOUND BROOK, N. J.,
April 2, 1868.

You advised placing Allock's Porous plasters, in dyspepsia, on the pit of the stomach; in ague cake, on the spleen; in torpid liver, over that organ; but I really think you should also recommend that one or two plasters be put over the kidneys. They stimulate, strengthen and act as powerful diuretics, thus casting out many poisonous acids and salts. I have had fever and ague. All remedies I took produced little or no effect until I put an Allock's Porous plaster over each kidney; their action being more than doubled, the malaria was quickly washed away. I have also had several attacks of rheumatism and two of gout, and by applying the plasters over the local pain and also over the kidneys, I again found your plasters wonderfully efficacious.

H. K. THOMAS.

Beware of imitations. "Allcock's" is the only genuine porous plaster.

Major Allen, Piegan Indian agent of Northern Montana, reports the Piegans dying fast from the scant food supply at the agency. Supplies will be exhausted in another week, and 3,000 Indians on the reservation will be left to starve or subsist on the cattle of settlers. Trouble is feared.

This porous plaster is absolutely the best ever made, combining the virtues of hops with gums, balsams and extracts, its power is wonderful in curing diseases where other plasters simply relieve. Sick in the Back and Kidneys, Pain in the Side or Limbs, Stiff Joints and Muscles, Kidney Troubles, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sore Chest, Affections of the Bowels and Liver, and all pains or aches in any part cured instantly by the Hop Plaster. ☞ Try it. Price 25 cents or five for $1.00. Mailed on receipt of price. Sold by all druggists and country stores.

The price paid is stated to be between $875,000 and $400,000. The building was formerly owned by the Equitable Life Insurance company.

Notwithstanding all the anticipations of that fact, no official announcement was made yesterday of changes in the heads of the various departments of the Wabash. Rumor has it now that the general management will be entrusted to Mr Worden Cummins, of the Texas Pacific, that the general passenger and ticket departments will be consolidated, with France Chandler in charge, and George W. Olds will be made traffic manager. How true these rumors may be will be demonstrated in a few days, but just at present all high officials are as dumb as the traditional oyster. Local officers here predict the promotion of K. H. Wade and George W. Stevens.

SEEKING CROWNS.

Last evening the rooms of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association were opened to the public. The front room on the ground floor is the reading room, with the files of leading papers and magazines besides a library. In the rear is the surgical room, while up stairs is the chapel and sitting rooms. Bath rooms are being fitted up in the basement and the house made as home-like and comfortable as money can make it.

The inaugural exercises were held in the Third Presbyterian church which was crowded. Rev. S. F. Marks asked divine blessing, and Col. A. H. Polhamus made a neat address of welcome. Following him came Supt. Charles D. Law, who modestly expressed his love of the religious organization, saying there was no calling in life that Christianity could not soften, benefit and purify. Mr. E. S. Philley explained the financial standing of the association, in which he has been the foremost mover. Dr. C. B. Stemen, T. A. Hildreth and others followed in neat speeches explanatory of features of the association.

Letters of regret and commendation were read from William Thaw, vice president, and W. A. Baldwin, manager, and J. Thomas, superintendent, of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, Superintendents O'Bourke and Caniff and General Manager Williams. The following telegram from W. W. Worthington, general superintendent of the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville road, came too late to be read at the meeting:

CHICAGO, July 1.

To Dr. C. B. Stemen.

I regret exceedingly my inability to be present this evening at the opening of the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association rooms. I know the railroad men of Fort Wayne will make their rooms creditable to the city and an honor to themselves.

(Signed.) W. W. WORTHINGTON.

The reading room is lighted by electricity and it and all the rooms are finely finished.

The musical part of the program was the most enjoyable presented for a long time. Miss Princess Clark, of Van Wert, sang several pretty solos, and W. H. Hiestand, of the same village, played with brilliant effect cornet selections, while the Haydn quartet favored the audience with delightful songs.

An adjournment to the reading room was then taken and the elegant parlors opened under the most favorable auspices. THE SENTINEL bespeaks assistance for the worthy institution.

ANDERSON AT LARGE.

The Fort Wayne Boy Not Yet Captured by the Albion Officers---They Will Not Follow Him.----Sheriff Schiefer Talks.

Yesterday THE SENTINEL had a nice scoop on its cotemporaries when it recorded the daring escape of John Anderson from the Noble county jail at Albion. A morning paper contradicted the story over the shoulders of Sheriff Schiefer and THE SENTINEL representative was sent to see that officer.

"Have you information that John Anderson did not escape from the Albion jail?" inquired the reporter.

"No, sir. I received papers yesterday to serve in the case from the county clerk up there, but no reference whatever to Anderson's escape is made. Previous to this the Albion jail has been broken open by prisoners three times and Anderson's escape is not surprising to me."

The information published yesterday is correct, because it was obtained by a member of THE SENTINEL staff at Rome City Monday. Sheriff Braden, of Noble county, is not much bothered about the escape of his prisoners and will not follow them, because there is no money in it for him. He will wait until the prisoners return to their homes and then he expects to quietly put his hands on them. When the news of her son's escape was made known to Mrs. Anderson last night she fainted and it was some time before kind neighbors could revive her.

WANTED FREEDOM.

Mrs. Mary Franz Seeks Legal Separation from Her Husband--Married at Fourteen and Divorced at Fifty.

Mr. A. H. Bittinger last evening filed a divorce complaint in the superior court. It was for Mrs. Mary Franz from her husband, George Franz, a resident of Ohio. When at the age of fourteen she married Franz and they accumulated much money for awhile, but misfortune came and with it discontent. The woman wanted to come to Fort Wayne, but her husband would not leave Ohio. With her six children Mrs. Franz landed in Fort Wayne and established a restaurant. Now she is managing the St. Charles hotel, on South Calhoun street, and has a nice boodle, which she fears her husband may come on and enjoy. It is said Mrs. Franz will shortly wed another gentleman.

The Diamond.

The Fort Wayne club was again defeated at Terre Haute yesterday, by the following familiar score:

| Innings..... | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Terre Hauties ..... | 1 | 2 | 0 | 4 | 0 | 0 | 4 | 1 | 0 | —12 |
| Fort Wayne..... | 4 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 0 | — 9 |

Other Northwestern games resulted: Muskegon 9, Bay City 3; Quincy 5, Peoria 3; Grand Rapids 6, Saginaw 4; Stillwater 2, Minneapolis 1; Milwaukee 8, St. Paul 6.

The Electric Light company have contracted with the Fort Wayne Gas company to light the city until August 1 for $500. The electric light will then be in shape.

LOCAL NEWS.

William McMahon, of the Bluffton Herald, is in the city to-day.

For cuts, bruises and sprains, nothing equals St. Jacobs Oil as a cure.

The democratic first voters organize in every ward in the city to-night.

Manager Woodworth yesterday booked "Rag Baby," a play which achieved some success in Boston.

Frank H. McKinnie, wife and baby returned to Columbus, Ohio, to-day, where Mr. McKinnie manages the Neal house.

A. Conkling, a brakeman on the Lake Shore, fell from his train last night and had his right ankle broken. He lives at Hillsdale, Mich.

George, the two year-old son of K. J. Bowers, died this morning. The funeral will take place on Friday from the St. Paul's Catholic church.

Frank Fitzpatrick, Herman Krohne and D. Zimmerman inaugurated the snipe season yesterday by bagging forty-one birds on the prairie, southwest of the city.

Abner Tousley and Nettie Dugan were married last night, at the residence of the groom's mother, Rev. J. K. Waltz officiating. There was a pleasant company and numerous presents.

The Philadelphia Democratic club will pass through the city Sunday morning at 6 o'clock in a special car en route to the Chicago convention. They will breakfast at the McKinnie house.

The indications for the lower lake region as reported to THE SENTINEL by the weather bureau at Washington are as follows: Generally fair weather, variable winds, generally from the east in the west part stationary temperature.

Little George Bauer, son of K. J. Bauer, the real estate man, died this morning at 9 o'clock. He was attacked with cholera infantum last night. The funeral will probably be July 4, from the family residence, on Broadway.

Physicians recommend Dr. Price's cream baking powder for lightening and raising bread, biscuits, cakes, etc., because, while making that table food more pleasant to the palate and more easy to the digestive organs, it takes no nutritive element from the original flour. Chemists endorse Dr. Price's powder as the most perfect made.

The Fort Wayne, Peoria and Galesburg railroad is quite likely to be built this summer and coming fall. Bonds of the road have been taken by eastern capitalists. The Fort Wayne, Columbus and Northwestern will be an eastern connection of the Galesburg road and another branch will run into Michigan through several Indiana counties.

Extravagant claims for inferior medicines are always sure to defeat the ends for which they are intended. It is only when the efficacy of a remedy has been tried and proven that the manufacturer is justified in pronouncing it an invincible specific. P. Ferguson, of No. 206 Hudson street, Buffalo, N. Y., adds his testimony to that of hundreds of others when he writes, in ordering a bottle of Athlophoros, the great remedy for rheumatism and neuralgia: "I find your medicine all you claim for it. I am now able to get around very comfortably."

HE WANTED A ROLL.

This afternoon Deputy United States Marshal J. W. Hayden arrested Charley Droegmeyer and Joe Ramsey, and slated them on a charge of using the mails for the purpose of blackmail. The boys were given a hearing this afternoon and it developed that for some time past young Droegmeyer has been sending through the mails threatening letters to Charles Draeger, the jeweler employed by H. C. Graffe. Droegmeyer signed himself as "Ike Walters," and although but seventeen years of age, indicted very cunning letters. Charley Draeger's acquaintance with Maud Barton, made famous as the "Court Street Blonde," was reviewed in the letters by young Droegmeyer, who also intimated in forcible terms he would inform Mr. Graffe of his capers if he did not send through the mail to "Ike Walters" $25. On receipt of this sum the writer promised to close his mouth like a clam and leave the city with the startling information locked in his breast. Mr. Draeger did not fear exposure and coolly consulted United States Commissioner Harper and Deputy Prosecutor J. R. Bittenger. Mr. Harper fixed up a decoy letter and sent it to the money order department. A notice was sent to "Ike Walters" and young Droegmeyer, accompanied by Joe Ramsey, responded to claim the $25. The youths were shadowed and later arrested as stated. Droegmeyer exonerated Ramsey from all responsibility and stated he only asked him along as a witness. Young Droegmeyer is a painter by trade and a son of ex-City Treasurer Droegmeyer, the well known merchant, who has done everything to straighten his wayward son. The young man is smart and wrote a very fly letter.

Care for the Children

Children feel the debility of the changing seasons, even more than adults, and they become cross, peevish, and uncontrollable. The blood should be cleansed and the system invigorated by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Boats, Bicycles and Hay Fever.

With the opening of the season of outdoor sports comes the time of trouble for the poor victims of hay fever. For them flowers have no odor, and the summer little or no beauty. To snuff, sneeze and wipe their weeping eyes for three or four successive months—this is their pitiable portion. There is no help in sea voyages, there is no help in high mountain air. These only lighten the pocket and leave the disease unabated. But there is a positive cure in Ely's cream balm. Try it. If you continue to suffer it is because you neglect a remedy as sure as it is cheap and pleasant.

Half Fare Excursion

Tickets will be sold to and from all stations on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad July 2, 3 and 4, good for return trip including July 5. 1t3

Twenty-five cents a bottle. 1eod&wly.

A CARD.

To who are suffering from the errors and indiscretion of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a recipe that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City. Oct. 8-eod dawly.

Excursion Rates to the Democratic National Convention.

On account of the democratic national convention, which meets at Chicago, July 8, the Pennsylvania company, operating the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railway, Cleveland and Pittsburg, Erie and Pittsburg, Ashtabula and Pittsburg, Northwestern Ohio, and the Alliance, Niles and Ashtabula railroads will sell excursion tickets to Chicago and return at the rate of one fare for the round trip, from all ticket stations on their lines. Tickets will be sold from July 3 to 7 and will be good for return passage until July 18 inclusive.

Arrangements have been made for additional coaches and sleeping cars sufficient to meet the rush and passengers will be carried through quickly and safely by the great Fort Wayne route.
